

A Gift for You!

As a bonus to becoming a Velocity Trade Exchange member, Ross Cox of ActionCOACH is offering to you a Complimentary Coaching Session. Ross is one of the top Business Coaches in North America and he works closely with business owners to generate more profits, build great teams and spend less time in their business. This Coaching Session is designed to be focused on your business and business performance. The value of this session is $395.00.

Ross will invest one hour with you to look at your business and give you several ways to get more out of your business.

Ross will explore the following areas with you:

- Lead generation into your business.
- Lead conversion in your business.
- Increasing return business from existing customers.
- Improving your average ticket per sale.
- Improving your margins.
- Team commitment, focus, and contributions.
- Systems developments to reduce the amount of time your business demands of you.
- Time management for you or your key players.
